

MO

Commercial real estate properties owned and managed by BOMA members are a significant source of economic activity at the state level, supporting jobs, earnings, and business growth in communities across the country. Their total impacts in the state and nation are reflected in the figures below:

MISSOURI

- BOMA Kansas City
- BOMA St. Louis

GDP

$5,688,200,000

Earnings

$3,618,100,000

Jobs Supported

66,500

Square Feet

1,019,400,000

BOMA
International

BOMA 2026 MARKET STUDY

The commercial real estate industry is a significant driver of the nation's economic engine and is also one of the foremost employers in the United States.

Founded in 1907, the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) International is the leading trade association for commercial real estate professionals, representing the owners, managers, service providers and other property professionals of all commercial building types.

$609.9 billion total output*

 Figures represent data from 2025.*

THE MULTIPLIER EFFECT

2.2x

RETURN ON ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

$1
SPENT

$2.22
GENERATED

Across the 79 markets served by BOMA International, its 35.4 billion square feet of office, retail, and industrial properties generate $274.9 billion in direct spending, support an estimated 3.9 million jobs, contribute $344.4 billion to U.S. GDP, and add $609.9 billion to total economic output.